An immediate news update for the families of Tot Learning Center

Thank You

Thanks to so many of you that baked and/or bought special treats for TLC teachers. Remember, teachers take the role of mom during the time that your child attends TLC; this is why Mothers' Day falls right after Teachers' Appreciation Week. Please join me in thanking them once again. Way to go TLC teachers!

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

(A message for every parent and adult that deals with young children)

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you feed a stray cat, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you make my favorite cake for me, and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you make a meal and take it to a friend who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give your time and money to help people who had nothing, and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it, and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw that you cared, and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and productive person when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking I looked at you and wanted to say, "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking"

Mom, you are my perfect fan. Thank you!

Each of us (parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, teacher, friend) influence the life of a child.

Happy Mothers' Day! Thank you.
